

Cristina Martorana

PARTNER

Cristina Martorana is specialised in administrative and environmental law.

She has deep experience in Italian and European administrative law (judicial and out-of-court), particularly in the regulated fields of energy and infrastructure with reference to issues related to the construction, acquisition or financing of plants that produce energy from renewable and conventional sources, network infrastructures, gas, district heating, waste to energy, trading as well as in environmental law, healthcare, PPP and public procurement. At the Legalcommunity Energy Awards 2016 she has been awarded Lawyer of the Year for Administrative Environmental Law. She is ranked among the leading Individuals in the Energy sector by Chambers Europe (Italy 2016-2020) which mentions interviewees describing her as "able to combine high-profile technical accuracy with a commercial mindset". She was also mentioned as a Leading Individual in Legal 500 in the Energy Industry Focus (Italy 2016-2018), in the 2020 edition testimonials say "Cristina Martorana: high professionalism combined with a charismatic personality". Moreover Cristina is also mentioned in IFLR1000 as a Notable Practitioner for Project Development.

Due to her experience in the sector and the acknowledgment received from the relevant market, she has been invited to numerous conferences and seminars. In 2019 she was a speaker at an event organized by Banca Intesa, at its headquarters in London, where the Hon. Undersecretary Crippa also attended, to report on the regulatory aspects regarding to the implementation of the Energy and Climate Plan in relation to the 2030 objectives. She also presented the "traditional and new instruments supporting renewable in the Italian Energy Transition" at the Energy Market Conference held in Frankfurt, Germany on 21 November 2019.

She is also author of articles in both national and international specialised magazines.
