○ Banking ○ Debt Capital Markets ○ Restructuring and Insolvency ○ Structured Finance

Marco Iannò, London Resident Partner, leads the London banking and finance team, and focuses on structured finance, sports financing, NPLs, insolvency and cross border lending transactions. Due to his ongoing assistance to major players in the Italian and international market he has acquired a significant expertise in structuring securitisation deals and negotiating the relevant transaction documents, with a particular focus on the innovative structures introduced by the Italian Securitisation Law, governance and servicing issues.
He has recently put in place two pan-European securitisation of sports receivables (transfer player rights and broadcasting rights) which have become a benchmark in the Italian market and in other European Jurisdictions.
He contributes on a regular basis to International law reviews on structured finance and insolvency issues.
