○ Banking

○ Restructuring and Insolvency

Alessandro Marino advises leading Italian and foreign companies and banks on banking law, debt restructuring and insolvency proceedings.

Over the years, Alessandro has been involved in numerous financing transactions in support of ordinary business activities, acquisition financing, leveraged finance and real estate financing transactions, assisting, as appropriate, lenders and borrowers, as well as in private debt transactions. Alessandro has also been involved in bond issues, both listed and unlisted. In these activities, Alessandro has been involved from the structuring phase, through any due diligence, drafting and negotiation of contractual documentation, to financial closing and post-closing, also handling the corporate aspects of these transactions when assisting borrowers/issuers. Alessandro has also handled the restructuring phase of bank loans and bond issues.
