

Antonio Matino

PARTNER

Antonio Matino focuses on banking, structured finance and corporate law. He takes part in financing transactions, as well as structuring financial instruments (including hybrid and innovative capital instruments) aimed at optimizing the regulatory capital of banks and financial intermediaries. Antonio is also regularly involved in structured finance transactions and the securitisation of loans, with particular focus on the disposal of non-performing loan portfolios (also in the broader context of banks' resolution transactions), as well as in bond issues, mini-bonds and other debt securities (including "EMTN" programmes). Antonio also advises banks and financial intermediaries on regulatory matters related to banking law.

Antonio holds a Ph.D. in Corporate law and his Ph.D. Dissertation has been awarded by Associazione Gianfranco Campobasso as the best Dissertation in Company and Banking Law.
