

Ivano Siniscalchi

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Ivano Siniscalchi has gained significant experience in public law and administrative law with a focus in the area of public contracts and public utilities law. Ivano Siniscalchi mainly deals with litigation in the areas of public procurement, energy and infrastructure, representing national and international clients in litigation before ordinary courts and administrative courts. Ivano Siniscalchi also represents national and international clients in administrative proceedings before independent administrative authorities (including the Italian Regulatory Authority for Energy, Networks and Environment - ARERA).

He deals with project finance operations, assisting clients (both borrower and lender side), in the field of renewable energy and infrastructure.

He also assists several public administrations (inter alia, the Italian Ministero dell'Interno) in the phase of organisation and management of public procurement procedures as well as in management of European funds.
