Corporate M&A

Real Estate

Jacopo Garonna focuses on private equity and in domestic and cross-border M&A transactions, including deals in regulated sectors such as banking, energy, and infrastructure, as well as multi-practice and multi-jurisdiction corporate finance matters.

With more than 15 years of experience in the M&A field, he regularly advises leading Italian and international private equity firms and real estate funds assisting them in investment and divestment transactions both in Italy and other European countries. He also supports multinational groups and entrepreneurs in complex corporate reorganizations and extraordinary transactions, providing also guidance throughout post-closing integration phases and in the development of business synergies.
