

Luigi Quaratino

COUNSEL

Luigi Quaratino has a wide experience both in domestic and international taxation, with particular focus on assisting clients in the context of the Cooperative Compliance regime, financial transactions and tax litigation.

Luigi has gained significant experience in assisting clients in relation to the preparation and management of the Tax Control Framework and in dealing with the Italian Revenue Agency in the context of the Cooperative Compliance regime.

Luigi regularly advises banks, investment funds, large corporations and institutional investors on all tax aspects of bond issues, structured finance transactions and securitisation transactions involving securities and real estate. Luigi also assists both borrowers and lenders in complex domestic and international financing transactions, including project financing transactions.

Luigi also assists major industrial companies, banks and private equity funds in tax proceedings before the Tax Courts and in administrative proceedings with the tax authorities (tax audits, tax settlement agreements proceedings and submission of tax rulings).
