○ Tax

Italo advises on domestic and cross-border tax matters, with a strong focus on financial transactions. He regularly assists banks, investment funds, corporates, and institutional investors on the full spectrum of tax issues arising from bond issuances, structured finance, and real estate and asset-backed securitisations. He also acts for both borrowers and lenders in complex domestic and international financing transactions, including in the project finance sector.

His practice further encompasses international tax planning and M&A, with expertise in advising investment funds and private equity sponsors on the tax structuring of investment transactions in Italy.
