○ Tax

Laura Licciardello provides advice on domestic and international tax issues, specially focusing on direct and indirect taxation of corporate groups, investment funds and innovative startups and SMEs. In particular, she advises Italian and foreign clients on the tax planning of domestic and cross-border reorganization transactions and on the structuring of incentive plans for managers and employees. She is also involved in M&A and private equity transactions as well as in the analysis of specific tax matters, mainly related to companies operating in the telecommunications, infrastructure and luxury industries.
